Picture-Musical.

A most distinguished company of patrons and patronesses is promised Edward S. Curlis, when he appears at the Academy next Wednesday in his pleture-musical, under the auspices of the State Antituberculosis Association and the Nurses' Settlement. The social prominence of Mr. Curlis contributed not less to make up this list than does the character of his unique performance. In New York Mr. Curlis appeared under the patronage of J. P. Morgan, Mrs. Douglas Robertson, Theodore Roosevelt and others. In Washington, the list of patrons to his first performance is heated by the President of the United States.

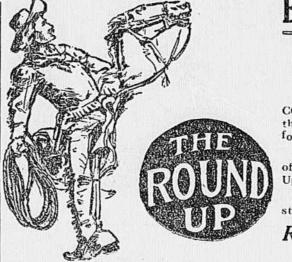

Mr. Curlis's Richmond patrons are as follows: The Governor of Virginia and Mrs. J. T. Ellyson, Mayor and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Colonel and Mrs. Archer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Williams. Mrs. Josephine Lyons Pemberton, Mrs. Edward P. Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lindsey, Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cecil, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Harwood, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. C. Maciachian, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lindsey, Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cecil, Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harwood, Dr. and Mrs. R. H.
